DANSON YOUTH TRUST

SUMMARY OF CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

- ALL users MUST register to use the facilities. To become a member of Danson Youth Centre an annual membership must be paid. Only those who have paid the current annual membership fee and present their membership card on entry will benefit from discounts. Members MUST produce their cards EVERY time they come to the Centre to benefit from reduced fees; members failing to do so will have to pay visitors fees. You MUST pay for your session in advance or upon entry. Any users leaving the Centre during their session will be charged for re-entry.
- Should a membership swipe card need replacing through loss or damage the charge will be £10.00. Unauthorised or misuse of a membership card will result in confiscation and possible expulsion.
- Members are expected to respect buildings, property and equipment within the Centre and do their best to ensure that no damage occurs to property either personal or belonging to the Centre. If you cause any damage you may be required to pay for it.
- All members are expected to behave in a reasonable manner towards all other members and staff. Care and concern for others is important. Members involved in unreasonable behaviour may be disciplined or suspended. The duration of suspension will depend on the gravity of the incident. Parents will be informed of any problems involving youth members if staff feel this to be necessary.
- Staff and Management cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage to any personal belongings whilst on the premises. Members are advised to keep valuables on their person.
- All litter and/or recycling is to be placed in bins provided.
- Members may not wear roller skates at the Centre except in the Sports Hall at the appropriate session.
- All Skate Park users MUST wear protective helmets whilst using the facility. We strongly recommend additional protective wear as appropriate. Members will be refused entry without a helmet and/or asked to leave if they remove their helmet whilst using the facility. Members may not ride in the car park, building or between reception and the Skate Park.
- The Centre is a “no smoking” premises. This includes our field and car park.
- No bad language allowed. No hats, caps or hoods to be worn within the buildings.
- Under NO circumstances may members bring alcohol, drugs or offensive weapons of any kind to the Centre or the surrounding area. Any inappropriate items will be confiscated.
- Danson reserves the right to decline entry and/or ask you to leave.
- Waiting parents are subject to the conditions as displayed on “Parent Waiting Arrangements” information.

These rules are for the benefit of everyone so that members and staff may enjoy the Centre's facilities in an atmosphere of friendliness and harmony.
